

6516207735.txt

I listen to xm radio every day. the fm and am broadcasters have too many commercials and other stuff that it is very difficulkt if not impossible to get up to date weather traffic alerts etc. please let xm and other satellite companies offer the services they have. if broadcasters have to improve their service to compete then either let them improve or get out of the buisness.